

Host and Executive Producer Rick Geyer

Rick has served on the following Boards: Allen Street Photography Gallery (Dallas); Arthouse; KERA TV and FM (Dallas public TV and radio); Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church, Elder (Dallas); St. Mark's School of Texas (Dallas); Westminster Presbyterian Church, Elder; Westminster Presbyterian Day School, President. Additionally, committees for the following Boards: CaPEC/Capital Area Partnership for End-of-life Care; KLRN TV Endowment Committee, Bill Moyers On Our Own Terms Promotion Committee; Last Acts (a Robert Wood Johnson Foundation national advocacy group); St. Stephen's Episcopal School Annual Fund; Texas Partnership for End-of-Life Care; University United Methodist Church Finance Committee.

Mr. Geyer has been the chief development officer for People's Community Clinic and St. Mark's School of Texas, and Vice President of the University of Texas at Dallas.

He has been a primary development consultant for Arthouse, Austin Film Society, Breakthrough Austin, Citizens Development Center (Dallas), Dallas County Heritage Society, Dallas Museum of Art, Dallas Zoological Society, Episcopal School of Dallas, Fort Worth Country Day School, Goals for Dallas, KPM Institute/Sri Atmanada School, Laguna Gloria Art Museum (Bond election), Marine Military Academy (Harlingen, development video), People's Community Clinic, Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church (Dallas), Selwyn School (Denton), Trinity Episcopal School.

Rick is also the president of FEPI/Family Experiences Productions, Inc.

Producer, Editor and Videographer David DeWitt
Print Design Kelley Toombs